A/N: Hello, people!

Will stared at the puppy that Hannibal was holding out to him. It was small, and fluffy, but what stood out the most was the fur. He'd seen cats with orange fur, but he had never seen a dog with such natural coloring.

"That isn't dye is it?"

"No. The woman at the shop informed me that he came out this way. Photos were provided. There is a brown spot beneath his chin, but other than that, he is as normal as a pup can get."

Will accepted the excitable creature with the stunning green eyes.

"Pumpkin."

Hannibal's face screwed up in distaste. "'Pumpkin'?"

Will nodded. "I was going to call him Gourdie, but Pumpkin is nicer."

Placing a kiss on his lover's cheek, Will turned the rest of his attention on acclimating the puppy to their lives.

Hannibal was so sweet at times.

A/N: DONE!
